Dear Sirs

We have been asked to confirm that MP & Silva Pte Ltd ("MP & Silva") is the sole licensee in the territory of Vietnam (the "Territory") to whom we have granted live television rights in respect of the English Premier League competition during the three (3) English football seasons commencing with the 2010/2011 season (the "Term").

In this regard, we can confirm that, on 30 April 2010, MP & Silva entered into a contract with The Football Association Premier League Limited (the "Agreement") for the exploitation of a package of audio-visual rights to the English Premier League football competition pursuant to which MP & Silva is entitled (subject to the terms of the Agreement) to sub-license to third parties the right to make, inter alia, live transmissions of English Premier League matches in the Territory during the Term.

We trust that this is sufficient for your purposes.

Yours sincerely

PAUL MOLNAR
Head of International Broadcasting & Media Operations
